“ I am sorry for your loss. I pray that Jehovah will continue to bless and comfort your family during and after your period of sorrow. Revelation 21: 3-4 speaks of a time when, there will be no pain, no sorrow, no sickness, and no death. This will be an awesome time.##imported-begin##Barbara Shedrick ##imported-end##

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. We know that you will miss Ellen as will her dear Lee Road Baptist Church family and other friends. May God fill that vacancy in your heart with His love and presence as only He can. We enjoyed her and Lollies freindship while we were in Greenville , SC but having moved to Mo 8 years ago we missed them very much. “ As two young women from the South, Evelyn and I stayed in a boarding house in Washington, D.C. and worked together at the Pentagon. She was the Maid of Honor at my wedding. I shared in her happiness when she married Dale. Our families grew up together--I had five children and she had three. We enjoyed many adventures in Maryland....and kept in touch when we both returned to our respective southern homes. I am grateful that I had the opportunity to visit with her briefly in March, 2011 on a return trip from Maryland to Alabama.

We will always remember Evelyn for her grace, courage, and untiring patience. She was a loving woman -- a dedicated daughter and sister; a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother; and a kind and compassionate friend. She met death comforted by her faith in life everlasting.

We will miss her.

With love, Elsie and Family##imported-begin##Elsie Boor##imported-end##

“ I am grateful for having had the honor of knowing this truly humble, loving, and authentic person. She cared so much for so many people in her lifetime, that she deserves the rest she has now found.

I wish peace to all of those who will miss her.##imported-begin##Linda Bridges Karr##imported-end##
