“ So sorry about your loss of such a beautiful and sweet lady, Evelyn. I just had to send this post as I just today found out about her passing away. I worked many years with Evelyn at Bank of Greer and have often asked anyone from Greer area about her, but no one knew. She touched my heart in many ways. I just wished I could have seen her.
You all cherish the memories you have. I hope this will reach your family and especially Lee. He was a little boy coming in the bank after school.
Take care.

“ Sabrina and I are very sorry for your loss, Uncle Jr and Lee.

We are not in the Greer area any longer but I will always be from Greer.

Condolences to all the McAbees. I have fond memories of Christmas time when we all together many years ago.

Sabrina still fondly remembers the trip to Six Flags that you took her on.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the family of Evelyn. She was one of the sweetest people I ever met...a true, gentle lady in every way. Twenty years just wasn't long enough to have her as a friend! I am thankful that she is at peace, and with no more pain in her back and feet. No matter how much she hurt she always wore a smile and had a kind word. She will be missed terribly!
