“ Sweet Aunt Evelyn! I will always remember her laugh, it was precious! As a child, I always thought she was so happy, always smiling and laughing and she loved my Daddy (her baby brother Jack). I also remember that everytime we went to her house, if it was for five minutes or 5 hours, we had to eat something! Seems like she always had something cooking. Robin, you were the perfect daughter, you took such great care of her. She loved you! I admire your dedication to her. Phillip, she loved you as if you were her son and was so proud of you! Patrick and Sarah, you two were the joy in her life. She loved you both so much. Anytime I would see her out, she always had to fill me in on how ya'll were doing with school, sports, college. Proud would be an understatement. So glad Zayden had her in his life, if only for a little while. Love you all!

“ Evelyn, or Aunt Evelyn as she was to me, was one special lady! I have so many fond memories of her over the years and I loved her so much. She made the BEST homemade vegetable soup! She was so proud of her grandchildren and had a special place in her heart for her great grandchild as well. My heart goes out to Robin, Phillip, Patrick and Sarah and to Uncle Jack, her brother and all the family at this very difficult time. Hugs and prayers coming your way.
