“ I lived next door to Wilma Faye in my early years. She was 4 years older than me and she took me under her wing and looked out for me. This was when she lived in the 2 story house on Victor Hill Mill Rd. and we rented a house from her dad. Her mom and mine remained friends until they passed away. Carole Cole Cox

I had the pleasure of getting to know Faye through my daughter in law Brittany- Faye's granddaughter- it was always such a fun, sweet and loving home - she had such love for her children and grandchildren. She and I loved talking about our Grayson and to see him with her was always with pure joy in her face and heart. She will be truly missed - she has left a family saddened but also sure in the knowledge that she wholeheartedly loved each of them. God Bless you Nanny Faye ❤️

My Mom, Janie Marion Wooten Pittman, and Wilma Faye grew up together. They were only a few months apart in age. My Mom developed Dementia and is now on Hospice. She's not able to complete a sentence, in fact, we call it word scramble. Wilma Faye came to see Mom just a few weeks ago to give her a birthday card and to visit. The moment Wilma Faye walked into her room my Mom changed instantly. It was like time rewinded. Mom perked up and carried on a conversation and had the best time talking with her best friend! You don't know how much that meant to her family. Wilma Faye took her time to share with her best friend. She will be truly missed. She was such a sweet caring woman. We will be Praying for her family. May God Bless each one.

Love,
Carolyn McCullah

Brandy, Brittany, Jeremy and Justin I will be praying for all of you. I know how much you loved your Nanny and she will be missed. I can just see my sweet friend Beth welcoming her mother to Heaven. I still miss your mom so much and I talk about her often. Remember - you haven't lost her - you know right where she is and has seen the beautiful face of Jesus. Love my sweet little "Heaton" children. I am here for you if you need me. Love, "Ms. Mertie".

To all the family, please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Mrs. Cromer was such a devoted Christian lady and her strong faith was unfailing. I witnessed just how strong she was during the deaths of many of her loved ones. Though you could see it took a toll on her, and with each death, a part of her died as well, she still trusted in her Lord and Savior to give her the comfort and strength she so desperately needed. It is that same comfort and strength that I pray God will bestow upon each of you during this difficult time. You were all so blessed to have had Mrs. Cromer in your life's and I too feel blessed to have known her. May you find joy in knowing she is with her precious Lord and loved ones and how excited she is to finally be home. With all my love, Fredia.
