“ I knew Castel when we were growing up in Elizabeth City. Her Uncle Scott lived next door to us. He was my Uncle too but on Aunt Linda's side of the family. Castel was always happy and loving. I was amazed at her agility and tried to imitate her but never did. She could do a perfect back bend and pick up a handkerchief off the ground. Years later when I would see her while she would be visiting with her mother, she was still smiling and always loving. I know you will miss her dearly. We have fond memories of her too. God bless each of you. Faye###imported-begin###Faye Harrell Gray###imported-end##

“ Dear Sheri and Richie:
God Bless you in your time of bereavement. There is no loss like the loss of a mother and I know you will miss her deeply, but rejoice in the fact that she is free and now at peace. May you receive comfort in the Lord.

Only One Mother

*Hundreds of stars in the pretty sky,
Hundreds of shells on the shore together,
Hundreds of birds that go singing by,
Hundreds of birds in the sunny weather.
Hundreds of dewdrops to greet the dawn,
Hundreds of bees in the purple clover,
Hundreds of butterflies on the lawn,
But only one mother the wide world over.*

Love you guys!
