“ Our history of friendship, love, and support goes back to the 1950's when we were in nurses' training. When she had lost luggage in Chicago, she borrowed a pair of my size 11 shoes and stuffed the toes. She never forgot that incident. Her lifetime of trusting God through good times and difficult ones is a beautiful witness of faith. I love her still as a sister I will see again one day when we kneel together at the feet of Jesus.
