Mom's Last Words for Her Loved Ones

If I leave nothing for my children, but a testimony to love the Lord, I've accomplished my desire.

I only want them to know my Savior. Live for Him. Raise their children for Jesus and don't make the mistakes I've made.

Love the Lord first and foremost before anything else. And meet me in heaven.

“ I loved this woman and was always treated with love and kindness. I will always remember her talks with me about the Lord and how she always stressed the need to have God in our lives . She was a walking testimony of faith and wisdom ... I will miss you and i will always love the one common thread we shared fly high and rest now your work is done here. I am praying for all of you may God hold you through this time and your heart's be eased knowing that God has her in his arms now... Amen.

“ Francis was always Aunt Louise to me. She enjoyed introducing me as her first baby as I came along before her first born and she doted on me. I loved her like my second Mom. She was favored in this life with a warm contagious smile, a loving giving heart and a joyful outlook on life. She had a burning love for the Lord and shared his message in actions and words. I miss her already and know that we will meet again! Condolences and love to her family.
