Heading: Frances B. Frady

Dateline: Columbia

Born in Shelby, NC, Frances Brady Frady, 85, of the Baptist faith lived much of her life in Greer, SC enjoying the love of her immediate and extended family. She passed early morning on September 10, 2013 with her family at her side after enjoying her final sunset seven years after her move to West Columbia, SC.

Frances was daughter of Barney B. and Mattie Ellis Brady. She was the last of their children; sons Douglas Brady, Ellis Brady, and Marion Brady and daughter Shelby Jean Crowley.

She loved and cared for her husband Fred James Frady until his passing as well as countless other family members. Their daughter gave them two granddaughters for whom Frances played piano and organ music and smocked dresses. After retiring from JP Stevens and Textron, she spent most of her time enjoying her silent mornings of solitude, doting on her loving dog, watching the sun rise and set, and working throughout the day in her yard. She lived her final years in Sterling House and passed at Agape Hospice House in Columbia, SC.

Frances' loving spirit is carried on through her daughter Casondra Winkles (David) of West Columbia, granddaughters Meredith Anne Winkles of Cayce and Kathryn Winkles Howle (Jay) of Greer, and great-grandchildren Major, Abby, and Anne Myers Howle of Greer.

A private family graveside service was held at 11 a.m. on Friday, September 13th at Hillcrest Memory Gardens. The service was conducted by Rev. David Slatton and music was provided by Aubrey Elliot, harpist.

The family is at the home of Casondra Winkles, 119 Sunbury Loop, West Columbia, SC 29169. Memorials may be made to SC Farm Bureau Ag In The Classroom (AITC) Foundation, P.O. Box 754, Columbia, SC 29202 or to any charity of your choice.
