“ Mom my life will never be the same without you in it. I miss you so much and would give anything to have you back in my life again. You are the best Mom a girl could ever have. You always believed in me when I didn't want to believe in myself. I will never forget the talks we had and the fun we had together and the trouble we tried to cause . Now your in heaven with family and friends. Rest in Peace now Mom with all the other Angels in Heaven. Love you Mom and I always will. You will forever be missed in my life.
