Frances Zimmerman Turner passed away peacefully on August 2, 2013 at Hospice Home, Spartanburg Regional Medical Center

Born May 13, 1923, she was a native of Spartanburg and was the widow of Lannes C. Turner. In addition to her husband, she was predeceased by her parents, Charlie B. and Ethel Wright Zimmerman, brothers Joe and Ray, and sisters Eula Mae Sams, Vera Allen Conrad, and Jessie Louise Hudson, and a step-daughter Judith Turner Challgren. Surviving are stepson Lanny Turner and son-in-law Joseph Daniel Challgren, four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Frances spent most of life in the Spartanburg area and was raised in the Cedar Springs Baptist Church.

A memorial service will be held 11:00 a.m. Saturday, August 24th at Cedar Springs Baptist Church, 140 Cedar Springs Place, Spartanburg, 29302-4601, conducted by the Reverend Todd Lowe. Burial will follow the service at the nearby Cedar Springs Cemetery.

Visitation will be held 10:00-11:00 a.m. Saturday at Cedar Springs Baptist Church.

The family wishes to thank the staff of Ashlan Village in Lyman for Frances's care over the past three years and Greer Village Hospital and the Spartanburg Hospice Home for her recent care. The family also wishes to thank Gail Solomon for being a special friend.

Wood Mortuary in Greer is in charge of arrangements.
