Tribute Wall

“ You know how much we loved her and all of you. All that she imparted into our lives will live far beyond this generation. When we think of "Aunt Frances" we know that we witnessed the hands of a servant of our Lord. She not only taught by her words but also by the actions of her life. We are so grateful and better for the fact that we were able to be a part of her life. What a privilege to have known her, let alone be called relative.

“ Dear Family, as I expressed to Hilda and Lawrence, Ben and I understand some of your feelings and emotions now. We know that it was a comfort to all of you, during her last year or so that she was living with Hilda and Lawrence for the majority of that time. You surrounded her with attention and love while she was on earth and now she is surrounded by God's love. May that knowledge bring all of you God's peace. love, Ben and Gwen Gramling###imported-begin###gwen gramling###imported-end##

You are in my prayers. You know where your Mom is and that she is now looking down on you and heaven is alive with her there to join all the other children of God. May he wrap his arms around you at this time and he will take care of you.##imported-begin##Kay Ivey##imported-end##
