“ *Dear Kennedy Family
It was so sad to hear that Frank had passed away. The Kennedy family was a part of our growing up years and we spent many wonderful times together. Frank will be sorely missed by his family and friends.

“ The Kennedy family was such a strong part of Ben Avon Methodist Church when we were growing up, and always a part of our lives. We attended Sunday School together, and we went to school together. Your losses over the past few years have left terrible voids in your lives. Please take comfort in the words of our Lord and Savior who said "I am the resurrection and the life. Whosoever believeth in me, though shall he perish, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never perish, but shall have life everlasting." You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Ted Painter

“ Please accept my condolences upon the death of Steve. It was such a shock to hear about from Howard. My prayers for his wife Deborah, his children, grandchildren and his sisters, Donna and Sandra, and his brother Ray. I saw him last at Chesnee and had no idea he was sick in anyway. Never got to speak to him personally, but did get to meet his wife, Deborah. Steve had stepped away at the time. I am sorry that I wasn't able to attend the "meeting of friends" due to illness today and will be unable to attend the services due to a Dr's. appt., but my thoughts will be with each of you. With love to everone...

I was sorry to hear about Frank. Frank and I met at Cecil's Business College in the late 60's. We all had a good time there and Frank was always the center of attention. The last time I saw Frank was at a Clemson vs USC game in the early 1990's. When we were walking across campus I saw this guy and told my wife that was Frank Kennedy.

The Lord be with you and you family.
