“ Mark and family,

My deepest sympathy goes out to you. One of my fondest memories of living in Taylors was shopping at your father's store. He, your mother and Garvin Burns always took good care of us. His store was my source for Tom's Ginger Ale. The last time I saw your parents was in 1973 when I stopped at the store while traveling from Charlotte to Atlanta. I had a nice chat with your father while I was in town. I also remember stopping at your ESSO service station before going on a Boy Scout camping trip.

“ Carmen and Mark

Very sorry to have read of your Father's death. Although it's been many years since I saw him I still have fond memories of Bishop's Grocery. Growing up on the mill village and attendig Taylors School it seems as if I was in the store almost every day. Your Dad was always so nice.

May God bless you.##imported-begin##Jim Wilson##imported-end##
