I have so many good memories of Freddie. We were friends at church and I visited her a few times at her house. She was a special person who loved her Lord and Saviour, her family and her friends. I will be praying for all of you. May God be with all of you in the coming days.

I loved Freddie! She always had a sweet smile and enjoyed her Church and was so faithful until She could no longer come because Of her health.,My daughter and I Enjoyed visiting her in her home. She was so happy to see us! We know she is with Jesus now and is Completely healthy and happy. I'm so thankful we will be with her one glorious day! She loved Jesus and we do too!!
