“ I will miss you Nanny... thank you for being such an amazing person in every aspect. When I had headaches in school you would pick me up for Mom when she was working. You made her house beautiful inside and out. Thank you for spoiling me and keeping me afterschool for a few years back in middle school. Riding the bus to your house was fun because if I ever wanted a snack you would let me have anything I wanted.

I'm sorry for the days that I didn't listen to you. When you told me not to ride my bike on your sidewalk, I did it anyways, and ended up falling and scraping up my knee. But you never said I told you so. Thanks for being the grandmother that loved me and took care of me. I love you, Nanny! Say hello to Papa for me and I'll see you later.

Love,
