“ Dancing in her basement, riding up and down the elevator, baking cakes, and soliciting her for Girl Scout cookies...Gail was a real addition to the community and my childhood. She was active, sharp, lively, and fun. You are missed Mrs. Snow! I was friends with her granddaughter, Sierra, and she was my neighbor. Finally reunited with Dan, Godspeed.

“ Mrs. Snow was an unforgettable teacher at WHS. Her class prepared me thoroughly for college, and her impression and guidance were factors in my decision to become a teacher. As we kept in touch over the years, I was amazed at the stories she had to tell, all the people she remembered, and her zest for life. I will miss our correspondence and am praying for your family.
