“ Dear Beth, Kelly, Lori - I was so heartbroken to learn the news of losing Gail and I am sending to you all my deepest sympathies and wishes of peace ...some of the most cherished memories that I have of my entire life are the summer days that we spent together on the Vineyard ... I was reflecting on these and relating them to my sister in law just 2 weeks ago while we were sipping chowda at The Black Dog.... I loved those days with your mom and remember how we would drive each day up to Gay Head, after a day of body surfing at Katama, for Chocolate pie!!! These are just some of the many, many memories I have of Gail -I will miss her. I am so grateful to have had her share in the joys of my life, by joining me at my wedding and her hosting of a beautiful luncheon for me with Margaret and her daughters when Max was born....my wishes of peace for you.##imported-begin##Suzanne Aberg##imported-end##
