“ I just had a trip down memory lane as I could see Gary in his '69 or '70 blue Chevy Nova 396 hp and seeing Uncle Bud wrenching on a vehicle in their yard with the radio at high volume listening to Winston Cup NASCAR racing with Petty, Pearson and Yarborough swapping paint and Aunt Cordie in the kitchen washing dishes after Sunday lunch singing gospel songs to pass the time. A much simpler time; no cell phones, no political wranglings, no air conditioning and not as many problems in our world. Time marches on. I will miss you cousin. You have fought a hard fight, you have now won the battle. Jim Barbare
