“ I met Gary in 2021. He answered my ad for a dog walker. Imagine my surprise when a one -legged, older gentleman showed up at the door. We would laugh about this over the years. My Bodie took to him immediately and a bond was formed. With Bodie. With me. Over the years, Gary became extended family to me. We would meet for lunch and fuss about how long Dr. appointments would take or exchange stories about our needy dogs. Gary loved his miniature train model set, he loved Walmart fried chicken fingers, enjoyed a good game of solitaire and loved watching old tv shows like The Three Stooges, but most of all Gary loved Harley, the dog he rescued. They were devoted to each other. Some times a stranger walks into your life and turns into one of your best friends. We laughed, I cried, he listened. It was an unexpected beautiful, meaningful friendship. I will miss my dear sweet friend. Until we meet again, I love you.

“ I remember My "uncle Gary" as I still called him. He was married to my aunt Donna when I was a little girl. I still remember where they lived in downtown Greer. Every time I would see him out, I would still call him uncle Gary. I worked for FedEx at one time and delivered a package to his house, and he was so excited to see me. He will be remembered always and missed!! Rest easy, uncle Gary!
