

Gayle Wynn Brookshire

May 28, 1939 - March 29, 2024

Gayle Wynn Brookshire, 84, of Taylors, South Carolina, passed away March 29, 2024.

A lifelong resident of Taylors, South Carolina, daughter of the late Robert and Willie Mae Wynn, she was a retired employee of the Department of Social Services and member of Double Springs Baptist Church. Gayle loved music, playing the piano and organ, working with children at church, and served as the choir director at Milford Baptist Church for years.

Surviving are her husband, Waymon David Brookshire of the home; one sister, Bobby Joe Long of Greenville, South Carolina; special friends, Tony and Rebecca Lynn, whom Gayle loved as her own kids; and Candie Blake, her dear loving friend and caregiver.

She was also predeceased by one son, Waymon David Brookshire, Jr.

A graveside service will be held 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, April 2, 2024, at Double Springs Baptist Church Cemetery, conducted by Rev. Keith Crowe. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

Visitation will be held Tuesday after the committal service at the gravesite.

Tribute Wall

“ I worked at Bartlett Milling with Waymon, her spouse. I was there 11 years. I regret not having reconnected with them since I left there. Gayle was the sweetest lady ever! She even made me sweatshirts with her own design on them. Waymon and Gayle were like family to me. I will never forget the love we shared together. I wish there was some way for me to find Waymon. I would give anything to speak with him again.

I worked with Gayle at social services. She was a best friend. I just found about it. We were best friend and she was taking care of Waymond and we didn't have time to talk. I hate it took me so long to find out. I loved that lady and my heart is broken. My prayers are with all of you ❤️
