“ I'm so sad to learn of Gene's passing. We dated in the late 70's in Charlotte before and after he moved to Greenville, SC. Periodically I would catch up to say hello, but now find I'm too late. Rest in peace my friend... Pamela Shinn Hayes 🙏

“ Eric, Know that your Dad was loved. I remember the days when Gene, my brother, Charlie, Jo and I would play together! We had fun and we had devilishness, as kids do. Gene is at peace now. God bless you.

“ Eric, We haven't met yet ... but I remember days gone by when my brother, Charlie, and I would play and horse around with your Dad! We did have fun ... and I can see your Dad's smile right now, along with him rascally nature. Rest in the knowledge that he is loved!

“ Eric,
Words cannot express the depth of my sorrow over the terrible tragedy and loss of your father. You were our greatest accomplishment in life. He loved you more than life itself. I hope you find comfort in knowing that he is your guardian angel and will be with you always.

He is now in heaven cradling Jaxson. They will be waiting on us all to join them in God's time.

*With all my heart and love
