“ Words cannot express our sincere appreciation for George! He was a blessing to all he came in contact with. I can still hear him laughing because that is what he did best. He loves to tell stories and has such a great respect for his brother Frank and would always sa, “Frank is coming!” These were huge highlights of time when Frank came to visit. George loved our family so much and we spent many Christmas’s and thanksgivings, etc together. He would pull up in the driveway going from our house to my parents and grandmas. He loved visiting and encouraging people. He was such a gift to all of us and we so greatly miss him. We are praying for all the family and especially Frank and Charles through this difficult time! We are so thankful He is with Jesus!!

“ so sorry to hear of his passing. i just read this. He was a great man. Frank I am so sorry to you and the rest of your family for your loss. George was a very sweet, charming, and funny guy. I remember George brought you (Frank) into our store to introduce you to us because he was so proud of his brother. He brought you in every time you were in town I think. It was always "The Frank and George Show". I never got the pleasure of meeting your other brother or the rest of your family. I wanted you all to know how much he was admired by us at the store. Sending love and prayers, Karen and the rest of your friends at State Spirits

“ George will forever live on in my heart. I am amazed at the strength that George has always shown. He laughed when others would not even be able to manage a smile. I feel so thankful that I was able to know George & consider him one of the best people I have ever met and one of the best friends I could ever of had. I will miss him greatly!

George was a great friend to me & my family. He & I spent many hours/days working together & often - just hanging out talking or having a meal somewhere. George helped me put in a new lawn & helped renovate my dad's house after my dad passed on. One thing could always be counted on from George - his big smile & positive approach to life & his sincere friendship if you were lucky enough to have known him. George will be greatly missed by me, my wife & son. We were truly blessed to have known him - as were so many. Our prayers go out to his family.
