Loved Mr George. Bowled with him on Club 55 league for a while. My mother went to high school with his wife and he recognized I looked like her. Just a pleasure to be in his presence.

What a kind & sweet uncle, and a quintessential southern gentleman. A smile & sweet comment always ready upon greeting. He is already missed.

Just learned of George's passing. He was one of those men that inspired me early in life thru his teaching and involvement at Greer First.
