“ So sad another Hendrix cousin has left us. Tony was always so much fun when we were growing up and would be at our grandparents house on Hendrix Road on Sunday afternoons. Keeping his two brothers, Carroll and Gary in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Carol, Gary Wayne, Lee and Families, I am sad to learn of Tony's passing. My thoughts go back to the days of our childhood and the times we had when my family visited Uncle Boyce and Aunt Mable, your house. We always had the best time keeping up with (you rascal boys) then including Michael and Tony. We always made so much noise running and playing tag, but your sweet mother didn't fuss. I hate that time has passed so fast since that time but please know those times are such precious memories and I still love those sweet rascal boys all grown up. May God wrap His arms around you to give you peace, grace and strength for the coming sad and difficult days. I will not be at the service due to out of town. Sent with my hugs, love and most of all my prayers. God bless each of you. Linda Coggins Roberts
