“ George was the big brother that every girl needs. He was the son that all mothers deserve. He was the husband and father that all families should have! He was a funny story teller. He was a caring person. He loved his Mama, siblings especially his brother Junior. They were just two years apart in age. He was crazy about his ‘Suzie’ from the moment he laid eyes on her. He was such a proud Daddy to his two kids and adored his two grandchildren and delighted in his three great grand sons! I remember him walking with me, comforting me when our Mother died! I love you Brother and will meet you in Heaven!
