

Geraldine Cox

September 14, 1944 - May 2, 2024

Geraldine Hindman Cox, 79, was welcomed into the arms of Jesus on May 2, 2024.

She was born in Greer, South Carolina, on September 14, 1944. The daughter of the late Abe and Grace Christopher Hindman, she was a retired data processor for Dove Broadcasting and an active member of Praise Cathedral. Surviving are her husband Sam Cox of the home; one son, Eric Cox (Tracy) of Taylors, South Carolina; one daughter, Dana Connelly (Chad) of Prosperity, South Carolina; one sister, Sarah Dixon of Sumter, South Carolina; and six grandchildren, Hannah McAlister (Taylor), Heather Cox, CJ Connelly, Leigha Harbert, Bennett Connelly (Alivia Grace), and Summer Harbert.

Mrs. Cox was predeceased by one brother, Carroll Hindman.

Geraldine met the love of her life, Sam, at a skating rink when she was a teenager. Their beautiful marriage of over 59 years is a true testament of love and commitment.

She dearly loved her children, Eric and Dana, and has been an ever-present source of encouragement and support throughout their lives.

One of her greatest joys was becoming Nana. Her six grandchildren have brought such delight to her heart from precious babies, through the teen years, and now all in their 20s. She was continually asking about their lives and how she could pray for them.

She was a woman of disciplined and persistent prayer, and there are many all over the world who are covered in her prayers without them even knowing.

God's Word, evidenced by her well-worn Bible, was her source of strength, hope and joy. Her heart was for people to know the Jesus she knew, and who she now knows more closely than we can imagine.

In addition to teaching First Grade Sunday School for many years, she was one of the sweet prayer ladies you reached when you called the prayer line at WGGC Channel 16. After her retirement, she spent six years faithfully serving as a chaplain in the local hospital and nursing homes.

One of her love languages was cooking, whether for holidays with family, big breakfasts during granddaughter sleepovers, or canning Sam's vegetable garden bounty. Her grandchildren agree that no fried okra is quite like their Nana's.

Geraldine loved seeing the world, visiting 23 countries, many of which were during mission trips to share the Good News of Jesus. She never lost her desire to "go" (Matthew 28:19), whether it was to children in Africa, an employee in a store, or her therapists in rehab.

She loved snow, sitting on the beach, gingersnaps with milk, picnics, collecting dolls from various countries, collecting angel Christmas ornaments, and most of all, time with her family.

Her legacy lives on in the many lives she touched. Her sweet spirit, tender heart, and loving smile will forever be cherished by those who knew her.

A Celebration of Life service will be held 3:30 p.m. Sunday, May 5, 2024, at Praise Cathedral Church of God in Greer, South Carolina, conducted by Rev. Jerry Madden and Rev. Chris Criswell. Burial will follow in Hillcrest Memory Gardens.

Visitation will be held 2:00-3:15 p.m. Sunday, May 5, 2024, at Praise Cathedral.

The service will be available for webcasting at www.praisecathedral.org.

The family will be at the home.

Memorials may be made to Praise Cathedral Mission Fund, PO Box 287 Greer, South Carolina 29652.

Online condolences may be made to www.thewoodmortuary.com.

“ There is not enough time or room for me to share the wonderful memories I have with Aunt Geraldine and Uncle Sam and their family. My heart is full and I have no doubt she is rejoicing with our Lord. Today we grieve but we will meet again! Until then we carry on in her honor. May God wrap his loving arms around you and give you all the peace that passes understanding! ❤️🙏❤️

“ Words are not adequate to express the love and gratitude I have for Geraldine. She kept our Bryan when he was a baby and attempted to keep Brent as well. She was instrumental in my pursuit of God’s call upon my life and I will forever speak of her impact in my life. Blessings to Sam, Eric and Dana. You are all blessed and beautiful family. Love to you all! Eddie and Phyllis Underwood

“ Dear Sam and Family,
Geraldine was a true friend and sister in Christ. She loved to share her Jesus where ever she went. Most of all she had a heart for the lost and also for widows and orphans. We went several times to Liberia West Africa. During those trips she always wanted to feed the children and hold them in her lap. She would weep and pray over their frail little bodies. Her heart was to serve no matter what the cost. Her God would make a way when things didn't seem possible! She was a woman of prayer and when she prayed you would see results ! I was a witness to many answered prayers during our trips. She always spoke of her love for her family. You were always on her mind even when I visited her for the last time. We rejoice knowing she is at the feet of Jesus ! Our prayers are with you all for the days ahead. She would tell you that Jesus is with you and Holy Spirit will comfort you. In Christ Love, Sharon Sudduth

So sorry to hear of her passing. She truly was a dedicated prayer warrior. I'd often see her at Greenville Place visiting my mom. We sat together at many Bible Studies at Praise. Surely will be missed.

“ Our beautiful friend!! When we started going to Praise Cathedral, we sat down next to her and Mr. Sam, then she immediately greet us very sweet. As Geraldine Hindman Cox’s personally: very kind, warm, and so friendly, supportive to missionaries, she said to me ..I always pray for whom will sit next to me in church, then you came here for we meet today ☐
Geraldine, you always will live in our hearts 🥰 and thoughts.
