“ You are my grandmother on earth and in heaven and no one can take that from me ever. i miss and love you very much and wish things would have been a lot different in our short time here. Just know that i will think of you even more so every time i see a butterfly and i will sing " butterfly butterfly come back to me" cause that was mine and your song. i love you grandma and miss you so very much. love your Pudgy Butt.

“ Your life spoke volumes to all who ever were blessed to be apart of it. I love you Aunt Jay the memories of you are so full of love, you were such an example of what a Godly Woman should be. Your gentleness, love, your talents gave much to younger women who were blessed to be in your life. I shall always have you in my heart and thoughts. Sing with the angels. You will be missed. I love you..Evelyn
