“ Thanks to each of you for sharing your Mom with us and allowing us to experience the joy of calling her MOM.

I know that Mothers Day will be hard for you but it will be her best Mother's Day.

As her pastor she was such and encourager and I knew that she loved me and I had her support. Her love will continue through your lives and please stay in touch with us. I will miss her prayers and I covet your prayers for us as we serve the Lord.

Your Charleston brother,sister and Jonathan who looked at her as his grandmother. WE love You and thanks for allowing me the opportunity to share at her celebration service.##imported-begin##Ddgar, Miriam and Jonathan##imported-end##

“ We will certainly miss the presence of Mrs. Jones in our neighborhood. She was a cheerful presence on the corner, and my children will miss waving to her as we walk or drive by.

We will be praying that God will make Himself real to you as you deal with this loss.##imported-begin##Lenny and Colleen Bundy##imported-end##

“ I wanted to say that your Mother will be missed by her neighbors. She has always been quick with a smile and a wave when we saw each other. We moved across the street from her 15 years ago when our 3 kids were young. Mrs Jones came to our door to introduce herself with a plate full of cookies to welcome us to the neighborhood. After a housefire and rebuild she came over with another plate of cookies to say how sorry she was for the fire and happy we had a new home. She was a very good representation of what a christian should be and is in Heaven now of this I am certain. You her family will be in my prayers, I know you will miss her. But you have had many wonderful years with her and will see her again. With deepest sympathy Tammy Brown##imported-begin##Tammy Brown##imported-end##
