“ Norma, Mary Sue, Don and Sammy,
I am so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. I was out of town working this weekend and was unable to come to the service. I have some great memories of us as children living in Wellford, well I am still in Wellford. I am by your home place several times a week. You were so blessed to have your mom as long as you did. I still have dad and he is 88. I will always remember delivering those phone books with you. When you think back life is really short. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Les Putnam
