“ I really don't know what to say. I am shocked to know that one of my friends in our school days is gone. Playing ball together, taking him home after practice hanging out together. I remember the night the Greg laid a hit on the visiting team player and cracked his helmet and had to go in and get stitches. Home coming our Jr year. Riding around in my 1952 pink and white Plymouth. Those were the days, and I never got to see him again after he went off to Troy State and I missed seeing him at our 50th Class Reunion. I'm so sorry for his loss. I'm really shocked . God bless the family.

“ Greg was most helpful finding the right sized KIA for my handicapped husband. We never forgot him and he sent birthday greetings every year. A charming gentleman.
