“ Me and my sister Kendal loved Greg very muchHim and Mom's story was awesome finding your first love and we loved watching them together and hearing their stories he could always make you laugh and smile and mostly how happy he made our Mom...Our families just meshed...Greg really had life figured out. He knew how to make the best out of any circumstances with humor and understanding. He never judged me in the years I was driving my mom insane. He truly was a remarkably beautiful soul. He would always invite me and my sister and fiance over to cook and grill with the whole family He always tried to make holidays fun! he taught me alot about healthy eating and what the best steak was! On thanksgiving he even took me to Florida to meet his brother, we had such a great time. His family was our family The way he loved us as a part of his family was so special, that in itself shows how amazing of a person he was. He even said he would walk me down the Isle at my wedding. The way he lived and the way he loved every one and everything and always saw the good in everyone the way he would let his soul shine really helped inspire me to be the way I am. And I can only hope to have the love he and my Mom had. I truly looked up to him. I loved and will always love him with all my heart.
