“ Guila was a neighbor of my sister's in Langley and over the years became sort of like extended family, coming to our family dinners and to our annual family Christmas party, etc.. Conversations with her were always interesting and uplifting. Guila was a kind and generous person, and one year for our mother's birthday gave her a beautiful turquoise and silver bracelet which delighted Mama. If there's a fishing hole in heaven, I know Guila is there and having a great time.##imported-begin##Teresa Tichenor (Tulsa)##imported-end##

“ We were sad to learn of Guila's passing, but are very thankful we had the chance to visit with her when she visited us this past summer in Oklahoma. If there is one thing that I remember is her generosity! She was always invited to our family functions which included birthdays...at my Grandmother's birthday party (a few years ago) Guila took off one of her many beautiful and I'm sure expensive indian bracelets and gave it to my Grandmother! My Grandmother was so surprised and so proud of it! She wore it several times before she died Memorial Day weekend of 2006. My Aunt has the bracelet now and cherishes it. She was a dear friend to my Mother and I appreciate that as well. When the crappie starts spawning every year we will always think of her with a smile and thankfulness we knew her.##imported-begin##Tony & Linda Jobe (Oklahoma)##imported-end##
