

Gypsy H. Rowe

November 11, 1928 - January 15, 2015

Heading: Gypsy Rowe

Dateline: Lyman

Gypsy Hampton Rowe, 86, widow of James C. Rowe, formerly of Lyman, died January 15, 2015 at Oakleaf Village.

A native of Kentucky, daughter of the late John S. and Lina Caudill Hampton, a retired employee of General Motors and member of Church of God of Prophecy Sandusky, Ohio.

Surviving are four daughters, Patricia Rowe-Bailey (Gordon) of Lyman, Doris Land (Dave) of Pickens, Debbie Kraft (Ed) of Shellsburg, Iowa and Sharon King (Gordon) of Elberton, Georgia; one sister, Maxie Ely of Dayton, Ohio; eight grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

She was predeceased also by a daughter, Karon Rowe, one brother, David D. Hampton, and two sisters, Hassie Brown and Carrie Eldridge.

Funeral services will be handled by the Mitchell-Auxter Funeral Home, 218 S. Main St., Clyde, Ohio 43410.