“ I am so incredibly sad that Harry is gone. His passing has brought up a lot of childhood memories—such good days they were, and he is in so many of mine. I am so blessed to have the Boozers as my childhood neighbors.

I remember seeing him at Wilson's for the first time in 20 years, and it was as if a day had never passed. For reference, Harry, Sandy, Jeff, Shannon, and Craig were in my life almost every day as a kid, and I have so many beautiful memories with this family.

I remember one morning when I was a child, I was singing as I went out to the laundry room. Harry was outside doing something on the side of his house and happened to hear me. When I saw him, he said, Sing more, Ashley. That was beautiful. This memory is crystal clear in my mind.

Anyways, it's little times like those that remind me of his kindness and encouragement.

I'm grateful Harry was in my life, and I will miss him. As I am thinking of him right now, a smile comes to my face.

To Sandy, Jeff, Shannon, and Craig: You are in my prayers and love you all. Ashley Holder Renken

“ Mr. Boozer, as I always called him was such a central figure in my childhood, always full of warmth and kindness. I can still hear his voice telling Shannon and me to quiet down! (ha!) and go to bed after we laughed all night, and I'll forever cherish those memories. He was there for me in one of the most difficult moments of my life, sitting beside me in the waiting room during my dad's open-heart surgery, offering calm and comfort when I needed it most. It's heartbreaking to know I won't see him again in this lifetime, but my heart finds peace in knowing this wonderful Christian man I have always thought so highly of is now with his Heavenly Father. Sending all my love and heartfelt hugs to Mrs. Boozer, Craig, Jeff, Shannon, and the entire family. Love, Lindsey Holder Rinehart.

“ Harry was the best neighbor. He loved to talk about Clemson football when a big game was on. My daughter so loved the tomahe grew in his garden! He would often leave her a basket of tomatoes at the fence because he knew she loved them so much. It is heaetbreato know that we won't see him from the backyard anymore. Sending love and prayers to his family.
