“ First time we met Harry at church he offered us vegetables from his garden. We enjoyed the vegetables but he gave us much more with his love and friendship. A perfect gentleman with a happy smile. Harry was a Friend and Brother Knight.
*Rest in Peace our Friend.
Our Sympathies to Pam, John and Family.*

“ Although I have not seen Harry for several years, It was during my tenure as District Deputy in the Knights of Columbus that I had the Honor of meeting him at Council 12274 meetings. It was there that I saw and heard the dynamics of this Brother Knight and Gentleman. It would be a Blessing to see/watch Harry at the Heavenly Gates, discussing with St. Peter, his entrance into Heaven. I will not be able to attend his Memorial Service, but, I extend my Sympathy to Pam and John MacCullum and the total Family. May his Soul Rest in Peace. God Bless.
