“ Harry and Vivian (as I always called her) were my neighbors in Greer. After Vivian passed I would stop over and sit and talk usually in his garage where he sat and relaxed in good weather. Harry always had the BEST advice and yet when things got you down he always could get you laughing. He had fantastic qualities as gentleman and was always kind. He is now in Peace with Vivian , the world has lost a very wonderful person who I will always remember as a good friend and neighbor who never made judgements against anyone. I have been Blessed with knowing them both. Judy Tamir
