

Helen Howell

October 6, 1914 - November 23, 2010

Heading: Helen L. Howell

Dateline: Taylors

Helen Leonard Howell, 96, of 26 Driftwood Lane, widow of Vinson Wade Howell, died November 23, 2010 at McCall Hospice House.

A native of Spartanburg County, daughter of the late Asa P. and Pearl Edwards Leonard, she was a homemaker and a member of Brushy Creek Baptist Church.

Surviving are a daughter and son-in-law, Tulip H. and T.J. Fusco of Anderson; their children, Tony Fusco and wife, Donna of Simpsonville, Todd Fusco and wife, Kelly of Simpsonville and their children, Macale and Bailey of Simpsonville; one son and daughter-in-law, Leonard W. and Becky Howell of Taylors; their children, Van L. Howell and his wife, Pam of Shoreline, Washington, their daughter, Valerie of Shoreline, Washington, Vince Howell and his wife, Kathy of Taylors and their children, Mason and Wyatt of Taylors. Mrs. Howell was predeceased by two brothers and two sisters.

Graveside services will be held 11:00 a.m. Friday at Howell Cemetery, conducted by Dr. Ralph Carter.

The families are at their respective homes.

Memorials may be made to Brushy Creek Baptist Church Mission Fund, 4999 Old Spartanburg Road, Taylors, SC 29687.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Previous Events

Service

NOV 26. 11:00 AM (ET)

Graveside

Tribute Wall

“ Tulip and Leonard, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember growing up in Brushy Creek and that your parents were always together-- never one without the other. Your Mom and Dad always looked so happy. May God comfort you and your families during the coming days.

Carter and Judy Hall Taylor##imported-begin##Judy Hall Taylor##imported-end##

---

November 25, 2010 at 12:25 PM