

Helen Jackson

November 8, 1924 - May 3, 2024

Mary Helen Jackson, 99, of Greenville, South Carolina, wife of the late James Ray Jackson, passed away May 3, 2024.

A native of Andalusia, AL, daughter of the late Robert O. and Annie Vickery Keefe, she was a retired employee of Mobile Water Service and a member of Morningside Baptist Church.

Surviving are two grandchildren, Anna Boone Babcock and Jeremy Boone; and five great grandchildren.

She was also predeceased by one daughter, Patricia Jackson Boone.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Memorials may be made to The Neighborhood Cancer Connection, 527 Mills Ave #101A, Greenville, South Carolina 29605, in honor of her late husband, late daughter, and her granddaughter, all who have battled with cancer.

Online condolences may be made to www.thewoodmortuary.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Jackson was one of my training union teachers at Berean Baptist Church in Mobile and was one of the sweetest ladies I knew. She was among the greatest group of dedicated Christian ladies who cared about the kids in the neighborhood. Hugs, love and prayers to the family, Patsy’s kids.
Babbi Leigh Johnson

Babbi Johnson - May 08, 2024 at 10:40 PM

“ Helen was a strong, determined and very compassionate godly lady. She wanted others to trust in God and Christ as Savior. She loved the Alabama home where she grew up and valued the caring and simpler time she had known. She wanted to live to be 100. We will look forward to see her again in heaven with the Lord.

Virginia Nutz - May 06, 2024 at 09:32 AM