“ Joyce and Peggy, we were saddened when we got word that Mrs. Helen had died. We, Gail , my wife and I, use to enjoy her when we were taking trips with the Greer Church of God. Joyce, I think you had accompanied her on a trip or two during those days and we enjoyed your company also. I had grown up with Mot and Frances Southerland on Victor Mill Hill and Gail's sister was a member of the GCOG and that is how we got connected with that group and enjoyed very trip we were able to take. I am sorry that it ended so soon with the death of Mot (Marcell) Southerland. I wish I could come up to Greer Saturday and see you Girls and b at the funeral but my health may keep me from it. we will try. God Bless you young ladies. I don't forget our friends that we grew up on Victor with.
