

Helen Kay Gray

November 19, 1945 - January 25, 2010

Heading: Kay Gray

Dateline: Greenville

Helen Kay Mockbee Gray, 64, of 305 Continental Drive, husband of Bob Gray, died January 25, 2010 at McCall Hospice House.

A native of Jackson, MS, daughter of the late T.J. and Lady Joor Mockbee, she was a former employee of Agilysys and a member of Memorial United Methodist Church. She was a faithful choir member for 29 years and loved playing on the church softball team. She was known as “Mama Kay” to her co-workers at Agilysys whom she considered her family. She had a special love for children even though she lost her only son Trey when he was seven months old. She loved photography and was a good artist. She was an avid fan of Clemson sports and was looking forward to seeing her New Orleans Saints play in the Super Bowl. Kay graduated from Hinds Jr. College with a degree in Art and was a member of the Hinds High Steppers. They performed in parades in New York, New Orleans and Washington, DC. At age 48, she attended ITT and graduated with honors in computer science and electronics. She was predeceased by her only son, John Robert (Trey) Gray and a sister, Lady Marion Mayfield.

Memorial services will be held 2:00 p.m. Friday at Memorial United Methodist Church conducted by Rev. Arthur Holt, Rev. George Strait and Rev. John Rush.

Memorials may be made to Sue Strait Scholarship Fund, C/O Memorial

United Methodist Church, 201 North Main Street, Greer, S.C. 29650 or McCall Hospice House, 1836 West Georgia Road, Simpsonville, S.C. 29680.
