“ Pat, we were so sorry to hear about Henrietta passing away recently. She was a true Southern lady in the best sense. She was compassionate and caring for others, generous and self-sacrificing with her time and resources, and able to make others feel good about themselves. I'm sorry we could not be there during this time but you, Casey, Louann, Karen, Rich, Aunt Pallie and the whole family are in our prayers.##imported-begin##Rusty Massengale and Family##imported-end##

“ Pat:
I was so sorry to hear about the death of you wife. . I know that you loved her from hearing you talk about her while we were waiting for the VEC meetings to begin. You and you family are in my prayers. Please remember 1st Thessalonians 4:13 “Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. (Quoted from the New International Version (NIV)). We Christians do grieve, but we have hope. Chris Miller##imported-begin##Christopher N. Miller##imported-end##

“ It is with great sadness that we extend to you our deepest sympathies and condolences at this very difficult time. It has been a true privilege to have known Henrietta these past few years and to appreciate her strength and determination in meeting the challenges that life on earth has offered her. May God bless her lovely soul and give you and your family peace in knowing that she will live on in our hearts and memories forever. Please know that although we are not physically with you at this moment, our hearts and spirits are with you in sharing the sorrow of your loss.##imported-begin##Tom & Byron Patrick##imported-end##

“ I knew Henri years ago when she and I worked at RE/MAX Realty Professionals. I admired her courage and pray for your family at this time.. Having lost my own husband in June I know that there is little one can say at this time that will ease the pain. The past years have not been easy for her, but she is in God's arms now and at peace. Take comfort in knowing you were there for her.

Sincerely,
