

Henry Homer Chism

June 15, 1942 - May 1, 2024

Henry Homer Chism, 81, passed away peacefully at his home on Wednesday, May 1, 2024, surrounded by love and family.

Born in Mt. Pleasant, TX, to the late John D. and Velma W. Chism, he was the owner and operator of Chism Trails tour bus business and Chism Used Cars for many years. His love for people and traveling took him all over the United States while owning his tour bus business. If he wasn't behind a steering wheel, you could find him playing his guitar and singing old country or gospel songs with friends and family. He had a spirit that was larger than life and never met a stranger.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his loving wife of 57 years, Patsy M. Chism, and his son, Wayne Chism.

He is survived by son, Ronnie Chism of Lyman; daughter, Nina Chism (Scott) of Greer; son, Chris Chism (Melissa) of Easley; seven grandchildren; six great-grandchildren, one great-great grandchild; one sister, Virginia McAbee of Travelers Rest; and many nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be held Sunday, May 5, 2024, from 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. at The Wood Mortuary.

The family will be at their respective homes.

“ Henry , you are and will be missed greatly. You sure could light up a room and put a smile on people around you faces. Your stories and jokes always kept me rolling and I dont think anyone met you that didn't walk away with a nickname. Just your smile or grin was heart warming and your love for family will not be forgotten. Buddy I know you are in good hands and if there is a stage near by you will be singing it up and picking with joy. I love you and miss you and to the family big warm hugs and prayers.

“ You will be missed! You always made me feel like family and I have more respect for you than anyone I know. You always made sure your family had what they needed. You were the best father-in-law I could have ever wanted. Thank you for being my kids' and grand kids' papa and everything you have done for them. Death took your body, but God has your soul. Sing your heart out in heaven to Pat and Wayne. I love you. RIP
