“ I can picture you trucking down the streets of gold with your affections smile. I will so miss all our daily conversations and all the precious loving things you said to me each day. I truly know that we not only shared the same birthday but a very special bond. Until we meet again your memories I will always cherish. You were affectionately called my “Sugar Daddy “ for your love of candy especially chocolate 🍫. As always the one you called your adopted daughter, Robin Smart

“ Henry you were a Trooper!
So happy for you and your FREEDOM,
See you smiling and running on those "Streets of Gold"
You had a delightful sense of humor, smart and loved your LORD!
Loved your dog, your wife and honored your parents memory and edified those who were kind to you.

Loved your storytelling ability and your smile.
Heavenly FATHER was Merciful and Faithful, and Loves you so much...
Honor to know you...your friend Pam “ Henry is and will always be the kindest sweetest most loving man I have had the privilege to call Dad..I cared for Henry after Lawnas Death until he married our wonderful Jean..He brought so much love to all of us in my home that needed a dad ..He was the best..So grateful God gave us Henry..The true story of redemption
