“ Mr Sammons' winning smile will live on forever in the memories of the neighborhood friend and family. He was always smiling, and friendly as it is possible to be. Our block won't be the same without him and Frances, but we can give him back to the Lord and look forward to our reunion in heaven. The Sammons legacy lives on in a wonderful daughter, all the grandchildren, great grands, and everyone that was nurtured and loved by Henry and Frances. All of you in the family have my deepest sympathy, and love. May God walk with you through your sorrow, and help you find peace in wonderful memories!
