Tribute Wall

“ Dear Robin, Charlene, & Sherry,

We were saddened to hear of Henry's death. He was a very special neighbor of ours when we lived in Campobello. We first met Henry when he kindly brought us a homemade cake when we had just moved to the area. He was very special to us and felt like a part of our extended family. We were fortunate to meet with him again only a few months ago. As a family, we can honestly say that we are all fortunate to have known him. Thank you, Henry, for all that you did for your church and community.##imported-begin##Lily, Lloyd, & Rachel Vidrine##imported-end##

“ Dear Henry,

You were a good friend and associate. You took great pride in your work at Milliken. I fondly remember how you lifted our spirits each holiday by decorating the office, and how you braved each ice and snow storm to make it to work, even when no one else came in.... we could always count on you.

Rest in Peace,
George##imported-begin##George Miller##imported-end##
