“ I was thinking about friends I grew up with in Newton, Al and Holden and his brothers crossed my mind. I looked up his info and found his obit. I did not know he had passed away. He, and his family, were wonderful people. Felix and I were in the same class. Holden was a real class guy. I hope you will be blessed with many happy memories with him. Sorry it took so long to get this to you.

“ Holden was my first cousin, his father and my father were brothers. When I think of Holden, I always remember a Big Smile and a happy outgoing personality. He had his father's personality! I grieve with his family, and you are all in my prayers and my Heart. He is now with his Heavenly Father.

*God Bless!
