

Howard Allen Briney

September 9, 1938 - March 3, 2021

Howard Allen Briney, 82, was called home on March 3, 2021.

Born of the late Arthur Leonard and Anita Rumsey Briney, and originally from Havre de Grace, Maryland. After graduating from Bob Jones University, Howard moved to Pennsylvania, where he spent his career as a professional truck driver until his retirement, when he moved back to South Carolina. He also attended the Living Water Fellowship Church.

In retirement, you could find Howard tending to his yard - mowing was a favorite pastime. He will be remembered for his gentle soul, and generosity towards others. He will be greatly missed here on Earth, but we know he is rejoicing with the Lord in Heaven.

Howard is survived by his daughter, Kristin Briney of Greer and his sister, Shirley Briney Howell, also of Greer.

Graveside services will be held at 12:00PM on Wednesday, March 10, 2021 at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens (14050 E. Wade Hampton Blvd, Greer), and will be conducted by family friend, Reverend Bill Buelow.

Memorial donations may be made to Greer Community Ministries:

“ I worked with Howard at Faith Seminary while pursuing my Masters Degree (1967-71). He loved the Lord, was a very hard worker, multi skilled in the trades and friendly toward everyone. I am saddened to discover that he has graduated to glory. May the Lord comfort you Kristin & Shirley.

“ I am saddened to learn of Howard's passing. I remember him well from our years at Bob Jones University. He was a good friend during those years and I'm sorry that we lost connections afterwards.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Howard's passing. As a teenager I worked closely with Howard during the summer months at Faith Theological Seminary. Howard was a kind person and I have many fond memories of him. May you, his family, experience God's peace and grace during this time of loss. Dean Curry
