“ Dear Hoyt Dill Family,
I can in my memory go back to December 1944, when a bunch of us guys from around Greer departed for Fort Jackson, and on to Camp Joseph Taylor Robinson for basic training in the US Army. Yes, Hoyt and I spent some cold months learning how to be soldiers, and getting to know each other. Soon we were sent to units and I ended up in PI & then Japan, and I never knew what happened to Hoyt. I can still see Hoyt in my mind as clear as a bell, He was a good man and a good soldier. May God Bless You. Carl Alton Brown
