“ My deepest sympathy to Richard and Pat. I knew Hugh from Parking Services and our conversations were primarily over the phone. Hugh had a great sense of humor. We shared numerous funny parking moments over the phone. May God comfort you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Johnette McCarthy##imported-end##

“ I knew Hugh through work. In fact, the very first night I went through training was with Hugh. We had a long conversation that night about Hugh's son and about all his son wanted to do with his own life, particularly about going back to school. Hugh had such a wonderful way of expressing his own thoughts ! It's only fitting that I happen to be working Hugh's schedule this week at the booth where Hugh trained me. Believe me, there isn't a moment when I don't walk into that booth first thing in the morning and feel him around me ! Having lost my own father in October 3 years ago, I know a little of what both Richard and Pat are going through. You're in my thoughts and prayers !##imported-begin##Barbara Landwehr##imported-end##

“ I’ve known Hugh for many years due to growing up with his son Richard. Every time we saw each other, Hugh always had something kind to say & greeted everyone with a big smile. He will be missed. May the good Lord keep, protect & watch over his family & friends as they remember all of the good times they shared with Hugh over the years.##imported-begin##Charlie Smith##imported-end##

“ I went to work last night at the last place we spoke. I was releasing him. And, all night long I would look at the door and expect to see him standing there. He offered me some great advice that night. I guess he knows the rest of that story now. He amazed me with his intelligence. God bless him he was always a kind to everyone he met. I am glad I had the chance to work with him as long as I did.##imported-begin##Lisa Jordan##imported-end##

“ Hugh always greeted me with a smile and left me with a good word. As usual, he left me with both of these when I saw him late Friday afternoon. I admired his kindness and light heartedness, both which seemed to come so effortlessly.

May the Lord's Peace be with him and all he touched.
