“ Imogene was a great friend to my sister Donna at the apartment where they lived. Donna is blind and Imogene would always check on Donna and take out her garbage, check her mail, clean up any messes Donna didn't know she had made. We have gone to a couple of adventurous road trips to the grocery store. Imogene would get on the riding cart and Donna would get behind the regular buggy with me pulling her around the store. We would all meet on an isle and cut up and act crazy. Imogene would always say Thank you for including me, we always told her she was family. And that was true, she was family. Donna and I were blessed to have been able to call Imogene our friend and sister. We will miss her so much. Especially Donna.

“ Imogene was a blessing to me and my husband from the first time we attended Calvary Baptist Church in Greer. Imogene welcomed us and kind of took us under her wing to answer questions about the church & anything that needed explaining or direction. We were greeted with a smile and hug & she usually sat just behind us every Sunday. Simple expressions of Christian love have greater impact on others than we realise. I'm glad to imagine Imogene's first deep breath of unrestricted celestial air & hear her praising her Lord with a strong sweet voice. I look forward to seeing her again one day & greeting her with a smile and a hug.
